LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1906

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Mr. James Weaver is ill at his home in Sutton street.

Today is the last day for payment of December 1st gas bills.

Ray's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or money refunded. 25 cents.

"Macbeth"—10 pounds, 25 cents; 20 pounds, 50c. Even money proposition. Try a sack.

A substantial crossing has been placed on the South side of Second across Commerce streets.

There are many different brands of Flour, but none have succeeded in attaining the perfection found in Roller King.

Mr. E. F. Scott, State Fire Commissioner for the Kentucky Board of Underwriters, of Louisville, was in the city yesterday.

The Grand Jury have examined nearly a hundred witnesses up-to-date, and will probably make a report some time today.

The intersection at Third and Wall streets has been practically completed, traffic now being open to the public on the South side.

The sewer work on the new buildings of the American Tobacco Company in this city has been commenced and will shortly be completed.

Miss Jennie Merz of Philadelphia, who has visited her brother, Mr. Millard Merz, in this city, on several occasions, announced her engagement last week to Mr. L. Stern, of the same city.

Officer Senteney found Tom McCarthy, a stone mason, drunk in the alley behind the Jail yesterday afternoon and placed him under arrest. The case will be tried by Judge Whitaker this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

I have about 75 Piano Boxes in the old Forkhouse which is to be torn down. No place to put them. Price $2.50 but will sell for $1.25 if you will haul away at once.

JOHN I. WINTER.

County Clerk Wood took things easy yesterday and only issued a marriage license to Darlington E. Fee, aged 30, of New Richmond, O., to Miss Lida Rogers, aged 27, of this city. Notice of their marriage last evening occurs elsewhere.

Now is the time to select your Christmas presents and have them reserved for you. Remember, with every dollar's worth of goods we give a ticket on the elegant Diamond Ring.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The Millerburg correspondent of the Paris Kentuckian-Citizen says: Mr. Abner Best and wife, of Chicago, visited Mrs. J. A. Miller and other relatives Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Thomas Best of Maysville, mother of Mr. Abner Best, accompanied them. Mr. Best has been in business in Chicago for several years. His wedding was a surprise to his many Kentucky friends. His wife is a Nebraska woman, being handsome and bright.

The genial W. H. Yellman of our city was in the wreck that occurred on the L. and N. Tuesday between Cynthiana and Paris. He reports that everybody was more or less shaken up, but no one sustained any serious injury, and that it was a miracle why the train did not go headlong over the steep embankment where the wreck took place. They were near a small place called Lair Station, and had to remain there about six hours before relief came.

Yesterday Mr. W. H. Robb of Mayslick was in the city to meet his son, Mr. W. W. Robb and bride, who were married last week at Carlisle, and are now returning to their future home at Mayslick from a brief honeymoon South. In the course of conversation Mr. Robb stated that it was a singular coincidence that his father married a Miss Piper in Carlisle about 75 years ago, and now his son is married to a Miss Piper, also of the same place. The parties are all distantly related.

BAZAR.

The Christian Church Bazaar opens tomorrow morning at Nesbitt's old stand. Supper served Friday evening.

Mason Circuit Court.

Mason Circuit Court met yesterday, Judge Harbeson presiding.

In the case of the People's Building and Loan Association of Ripley v. Morris Hutchins, judgment was rendered against Hutchins to sell certain properties in Dover.

The case of Mason county v. L. and N. Railroad was continued at request of the defendant.

The following named gentlemen compose the Petit Jury:

William Pyles, C. H. Sidwell, Henry Disterich, R. G. Bullock, A. H. Thompson, O. B. Thomas, W. H. Robb, William Rhodes, J. J. Dickson, Paul Tierney, R. W. Wallingford, Ed. Rubenacker, George Whaley, J. E. Parker, William Archdeacon, C. H. Frank, W. N. Orridge, Joseph H. Martin, John Latham, C. C. Arthur, Dimmitt Knight, Frank Devine, W. R. Lloyd and P. J. Graybill.

Mr. W. H. Robb was excused from service, and another ordered selected in his stead on next Monday.

The Petit Jury adjourned over until Monday.

GENUINE NEW ORLEANS MOLASSES

We received the first and only genuine New Crop Molasses that has been in Maysville this season. We are selling on a small margin at 60c a gallon.

Send us your orders for Molasses, or anything in the grocery line, and you will get the best.

TELEPHONE No. 43. G. W. GEISEL, OPPOSITE OPERA-HOUSE.

FEE—ROGERS.

Hymen was in happiest mood last evening when Mr. Darlington E. Fee and Miss Lida Rogers plighted their troth at the beautiful home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James H. Rogers.

The grooua is the son of Mr. Darlington E. Fee of New Richmond, O., and Miss Kate Dimmitt, daughter of the late Dr. Addison Dimmitt of this county. He is now in the customs service of the Philippine Islands, stationed at Iloilo, where he and his bride will be after the first of March.

They left for New York on C. and O. train No. 4 last night, followed by the best wishes of all who know them.

Guests from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greer, Indianapolis; Miss Lillian Hord, Chicago; Mrs. Duncan Bell, Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Horrick and Miss Walker, Pittsburgh; Mrs. James Brannin, Avondale; James H. Rogers, New York; Misses Peed, Mayslick; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fee, New Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mrs. A. C. Respass and Mr. Courtney Respass, Lexington.

Now is a good time and Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank is a good place to save money.

The case of Dayton Willett, charged with harboring a vicious dog, came up before Judge Whitaker yesterday afternoon and was dismissed.

Invitations have been issued to the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Wallingford to Mr. W. Reese Clark, which will take place Wednesday, December 19th, at 12 o'clock, at Hebron. The bride-elect is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallingford.

DO YOU LIKE CANNED PEAS
If so try a can La France Sweet Wrinkle, 15c a can. M. C. RUSSELL CO.

Mrs. Fee—Lida Rogers as we all think of her—is the daughter of the late James H. and Mrs. Lida Rogers, and is considered by those who know her as one of the most charming girls that graces the social life of our city, and whose many accomplishments have made green spots in our memory that will make it hard to give her up, but which will, however, cause us never to forget her.

Creighbaum, Tailor, No. 6, E. Second St. Dr. C. W. Aitkin is preparing to build a new dwelling at Flemingsburg, and will move back to that place from Lexington.

Evidence has been received in the investigation at Princeton going to show that members of the Dark Tobacco Growers' Association had taken an oath to shed blood, if necessary, to further the cause of the growers who are fighting the Tobacco Trust.

TELEPHONE

The telephone subscribers in Mason county are receiving the modern book "A Fight With an Octopus," and it appeals not only to telephone subscribers, but to every one having good, red, American blood in their veins. It is the story of a magnificent fight that was won against overwhelming odds. It is the story of a snug coterie of "Boston gentlemen" of the immaculate type, put to flight by a few sturdy men out of the West. It is the story of a low, scheming campaign of greed, that was turned into a rout by a fine, sentimental, American citizenship.

It is a story of dramatic interest, not because of the manner of telling, which is simple and commonplace enough, but because of the facts it relates. It is the story of at least one Trust that was "busted." It is a story that, while dealing with the details of an industrial war, will interest even the women, for it is full of good, clean, honest fighting, of the deeds of men who stood shoulder to shoulder under the Stars and Stripes, and, in the name of American freedom and independence, lined up against the most complete and relentless and successful monopoly of the times—and beat it to a pulp. It is a poor sort, either man or woman, who cannot find somewhere in the record of these fighters the story of a deed that will stir the pulse. No one can read it, and not realize how extremely fortunate Mason county is in having only the Independent Telephone Company operating in it.

Mr. W. C. Dillon, the Acting Manager of the Telephone Company, shows good judgment in presenting the facts of the Independent Telephone business to the public as they really are through the medium of this book.

Invitations have been issued to the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Wallingford to Mr. W. Reese Clark, which will take place Wednesday, December 19th, at 12 o'clock, at Hebron. The bride-elect is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallingford.

John Clarke Rogers gave the bride away. Immediately following the tying of the nuptial knot congratulations were offered by those present, and then, as is customary, the bride mounted the stairs and threw her bouquet to the floor below, Miss Anne Stubbs being the lucky one to catch it, fate thus picking out the one to be first led to the altar.

An elaborate supper of several courses was then served, the guests being seated at attractive individual tables in the dining-room.

The color scheme of the wedding was pink and white and was carried out in every detail.

The bride's table, set in the library, would have made sure the hearts of the Knights of the Round Table if they could have glanced in from the shadows of the past, for this round table taxed the capacity of the room. A setting of spotless damask held out in bold relief a huge bunch of bride's roses in a basket of spun pink candy in the center of the table. The shades of chandelier and candles were of pink, and festoons of smilax and tulle fell gracefully from the chandelier to the edge of the table. There were billows of tulle covering the table, only making place for Colonial glass candlesticks and tumblers of similar design. At each place was a miniature trunk or dress suit case, attached to the place card upon the back of which was an appropriate toast. Confetti in the shape of pink and white slippers and hearts were also in evidence.

Ices were served by Traxel, which closed the material side of the affair.

Those lucky enough to be honored with a seat at the bride's table were in the order named: Mr. Darlington E. Fee, Mrs. Darlington E. Fee, Mr. John Marshall, Miss Nancy Peed, Mr. Jesse Fee, Mr. Bob Davis, Miss Mary Noyes, Mr. William Trout, Mr. James Rogers, Miss Anne Fee, Mr. Banks Durrett, Miss Florence Rogers, Mr. Albert Hinton, Miss Anne Stubbs, Mr. J. Clarke Rogers, Mrs. Duncan Bell, Mr. Robert L. Hoefflich, Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mr. Gordon Sulser, Mrs. James Brannin, Mr. Hamilton Scott and Miss Mary Alter Barbour.

The presents were the handsomest and most numerous that were ever given to any bride and groom in Maysville, so far as the knowledge of the scribe is concerned, and many others made the same expression, which best attests the popularity of the pair.

Mr. W. H. Robb was excused from service, and another ordered selected in his stead on next Monday.

The Petit Jury adjourned over until Monday.

COATS

The separate coat is again a feature of the winter styles. In its best form—Wooltex, of course—it is of generous cut and rather simple trimming scheme. Its easy fit suggests, rather than conceals, the perfect figure. The loosest of the loose coats have just the proper fullness for grace and swing.

All prices between \$7 $\frac{1}{2}$  and \$30 and superb value in every dollar's worth.

WARNER'S Rust-Proof

For the Generously Proportioned Figure.

The fan-shaped front is more than ornamental. It flattens the abdomen without unpleasant pressure. The long skirts closely envelop the hips and give graceful lines to the figure. Fine, firm Coutilie.

Price, $1.00.

WOMEN'S NECKWEAR

It's really astonishing how much is obtainable for 25c and 50c. In shape and work these charming bits of lace, chiffon and linen closely resemble the expensive stocks and collars. Here's a brief list of what pretty neckwear women can buy for 25c and 50c:

Venise Lace Stocks.
Embroidered Chiffon Stocks.
Embroidered Lawn Stocks.
Embroidered and Lace Turnovers.
Embroidered and Lace Collar-and-Cuff Sets.

Mussed Embroideries

Odd lots, crumpled and a little dusty, from various causes. Window and interior decoration, special sales, etc. Perfect in every way; only need laundering to be as good as new; yet from prices always low, we clip liberally, as the quality of the goods show.

EDGINGS AND INSERTINGS.
Worth 15c to 25c yard, now 10c and 15c.
Edges and insertions, worth 35c to 50c, now 25c and 30c.

CONGRESSMAN SLAYDEN of Texas is preparing a bill providing that after June 30th, 1907, all Negroes or persons of Negro descent in the American Army shall be discharged and none shall thereafter be thus employed.

THE salaries of members of Congress may be increased to $7,500 per annum, instead of the $5,000 they are now receiving; and yet the woods are overrun with fellows who would be glad to accept the job at the old figure,—and even pay a few thousand for the privilege.

THE raiders and incendiaries who are burning Trust tobacco warehouses and stemmories in Southern Kentucky are taking the wrong course to destroy the Trust. On the other hand, they are taking the very best possible course to destroy their own organization, or the organization which they profess to represent.

WHAT! I really wonder if it's possible that the Board of Education is going to make a grievous mistake in the selection of a person to make the plans for the new Schoolhouses? Several thoroughly competent Architects have appeared before the Committee, either of whom would render proper service. Are these to be brushed aside in favor of persons who are engaged in other pursuits? For Heaven's sake and the sake of Maysville, I hope not!

THE Courier-Journal says the confession of one of the leaders of the Teamsters' Union that $1,500 had been divided among himself, CORNELIUS P. SHEA and three others for ordering the strike of teamsters in Chicago last year shows to what depth some human beings may fall. The strike, it will be remembered, was purely a "sympathetic" strike. The teamsters themselves had no grievance. The garment workers were the ones primarily interested. They made demands on their employers and were refused. They struck. The President of the garment workers then bribed the five leaders of the teamsters to order the teamsters out. So the "sympathetic" strike was precipitated, together with riots, bloodletting and the destruction of property. While the poor teamsters were quitting their jobs through loyalty to their Union, risking starvation for themselves and families and endangering their chances of re-employment, SHEA and his staff officers were pocketing their price and enjoying life. The trouble with too many strikes is that the Union boss is the only one who profits.

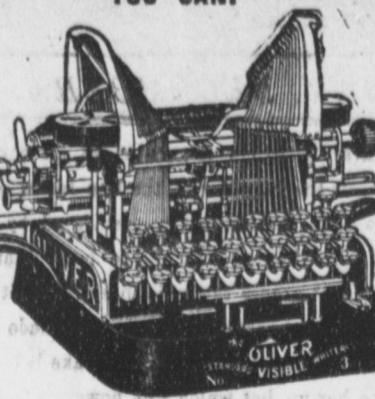

NOT FOR AMERICANS.

A well known New Yorker, a bit of a globe trotter, tells of a courier he once encountered in Switzerland while a member of a party of Americans and Englishmen. On the way over the St. Gotthard pass for some distance the train moved along opposite a tremendously high precipice, over which a tiny stream flowed, almost losing itself in mist before reaching its course below. The courier, an extremely intelligent and clever chap, was entertaining a party with a recital of that stream's peculiarities. Later one of the party, an Englishman, told the others a story concerning a certain species of fish in the stream to the effect that, when it came to the edge of the precipice, it would curl itself up, put its tail in its mouth, and roll down, for all the world like a hoop. "See here, Auguste," said the New Yorker who tells the story, "why didn't you yourself tell us about that fish?"

With a shrug Auguste replied: "I myself had heard the story and have told it. But I never tell it to Americans—they can tell pretty good lies themselves."

President's Pointed Paragraphs

SUBSTANCE OF MESSAGE

The Purely Rooseveltian Style of Saying Things

Many Aphorisms That Convey a Vast Lot of Meaning

"I again recommend a law prohibiting all corporations from contributing to the campaign expenses of any party."

"I believe it would be a wrong to prohibit altogether the use of injunctions."

"If men seek to destroy life or property by mob violence, there should be no impairment of the power of the Courts to deal with them in the most summary and effective way possible."

"There is but one safe rule for dealing with black men as with white men; that is, to treat each man, whatever his color, his creed or his social position, with even-handed justice."

"Every colored man should realize that the worst enemy of his race is the Negro criminal, and above all the Negro criminal who commits the crime of rape."

"The crime of rape should always be punished by death; assault with intent to commit rape should be made a capital crime; and punishment should follow immediately upon the heels of the offense."

"Let justice be sure, and swift; but let it be justice under the law, and not the wild and crooked savagery of the mob."

"The free public school, the chance for each boy and girl to get a good elementary education, lies at the foundation of the whole political situation."

"In dealing with both labor and capital, there is but one matter to remember more important than aught else, and that is the infinite harm done by preachers of mere discontent."

"The triumph of the mob is just as evil a thing as the triumph of the plutocracy, and to have escaped one danger avails nothing if we succumb to the other."

"The horrors incident to the employment of young children in factories or at work anywhere are a blot on our civilization."

"The Interstate Commerce Law has rather amusingly falsified the predictions, both of those who asserted that it would ruin the railroads and of those who asserted that it did not go far enough and would accomplish nothing."

"The best way to avert the very undesirable move for the Governmental ownership of railroads is to secure such adequate control and regulation of the great interstate common carriers as will do away with the evils which give rise to agitation against them."

"There is every reason why, when next our system of taxation is revised, the National Government should impose a graduated inheritance tax, and, if possible, a graduated income tax."

"American citizenship should be conferred on the citizens of Porto Rico."

"All we have a right to question is the man's conduct."

"Especially do we need to remember our duty to the stranger within our gates."

"We have as much to learn from Japan as Japan has from us."

"We should, as a Nation, do everything in our power for the cause of honorable peace."

"The United States Navy is the surest guarantor of peace which the country possesses."

"To stop building ships for one year means that for that year the Navy goes back, instead of forward."

"It is neither safe nor proper to leave the question of polygamy to be dealt with by the several states."

"When men and women cease to regard a worthy family life as the best life worth living, evil days for the Commonwealth are at hand."

"No man, no woman, can shirk the primary duties of life, whether for love of ease and pleasure, or for any other cause, and retain his or her self-respect."

"In my judgment, the whole question of marriage and divorce should be relegated to the authority of the National Congress."

"There must soon be a revision of them, (currency laws,) because to leave them as they are means to incur liability of business disaster."

"I most earnestly hope the bill to provide a lower tariff for or else absolute free trade in Philippine products will become a law."

"This Nation owes no more imperative duty to itself and mankind than the duty of managing the affairs of all the islands under the American flag so as to make it evident that it is in every way to their advantage that the flag should fly over them."

"The United States wishes nothing of Cuba except that it shall prosper morally and materially, and wishes nothing of the Cubans save that they shall be able to preserve order among themselves and therefore to preserve their independence."

Before buying a Piano see Gerbrich.

Mott Ayres, State Fire Marshal, and Clem J. Whittemore, his attorney, have begun an investigation into the burning of the John Orr and James Stegar tobacco factories at Princeton.

Near Owingsville Sam Stone, son of Grifton Stone, with his brother-in-law, Tom Rallins, went rabbit hunting. Rallins' gun was accidentally discharged and shot Stone's leg off just below the knee. Stone's leg was amputated, but he died soon after.

A report from the office of Public Roads, a branch of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, shows that there are 57,137 miles of public road in the state of Kentucky, of which 1,408 miles were surfaced with gravel and 8,078 with stone, making in all 9,486 miles of improved road.

At the convention of Burley tobacco men at Winchester a resolution was offered and adopted condemning in strong language the burning of the Trust tobacco stemmories at Princeton, and other recent outrages by the "raiders." The sense of the convention is to fight the Trust in an honorable way.

The Burley Tobacco Society, comprising twenty-three counties in Kentucky and one in Ohio, met at Winchester Tuesday and arranged to pool the tobacco of the district. Fifteen cents per pound was fixed as the minimum price for an average crop. Each county is to receive its own tobacco, grade and finance the same.

WHAT YOU WANT

What you want in Horse Blankets is strength. Certainly you want them handsome, too; but the horse is such a rough creature on his clothes that he will make your pocket-book thin if you buy poor blankets.

5-A Horse Blankets are known the world over as the best and strongest. We sell 'em.

Also, you will want a good pair of Leggings. We have a splendid line on hand at very low prices.

We have a limited number of beautiful souvenirs, and are going to give them to those who send us a postal card with their address written plainly upon it, together with Postoffice address and the name of the newspaper in which they read this ad. Send in your card early so as to get your name down for one.

Twelve cent turkeys are still selling at eleven cents.

The farmers are now very much interested in killing hogs, stripping tobacco and cribbing corn.

No LEDGER today. Well, we will excuse the firm if they will acknowledge they have been treated to too much turkey, &c.

Miss Lizzie Clay Stone was joyfully received at her home Thanksgiving Day and until Monday, when she returned to her studies at Bourbon College, Paris, expecting to be home again to spend Christmas.

Turkey drovers, in trying to increase their number without paying for them, are causing a good deal of trouble on their way, and deserve to be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. It is very aggravating to have your property blown in and taken off like the wind, and nobody must be accused.

We should be thankful not only the day appointed by the Governor, but every day that we are born free American citizens and allowed to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience, and that our surroundings are such, brought about by the aspirations of our forefathers and teachers, that we can be taught and elevated to a sphere that is calculated to fit us to help advance the work for the usefulness and happiness of those who are to come after us in compliance with opportunities presented; being spurred by a will to bear our part of the responsibilities, after estimating the influence of early training by our parents, friends and teachers and acknowledging our obligations to them for the conceptions of life which have enabled us to improve our opportunities and consequently to devote ourselves to the solution of the problems that confront our generation. But a great important attribute is humility, taught by the reflection of our indebtedness to others for what we have and what we are, accompanied by a feeling of gratitude, both appropriate to the service of the Church. Let the good work go on.

A wedding at Cottageville this week.

Rev. D. McDonald, D. D., of Danville, will be here this week.

Leedom & Seers of Manchester were here last week buying tobacco.

Miss Stella Nash is up from Maysville attending the Evans meeting.

Mr. Jim Pugh and others of Vanceburg are sporting in these parts.

Fred McCarban was up a few days ago from Cincinnati visiting home folks.

Mrs. Roger Potts, who underwent a surgical operation in Nicholas county, came home last week, and we are pleased to say, is able to attend the Evans meetings.

The Rev. T. S. Buckingham, formerly of this city but recently of Burkesville, is now in Lexington to take general supervision of the work of the Anti-Saloon League in Central Kentucky. The main office of the League is in Louisville, but the state has been divided for the temperance campaign into two districts, for which Bowling Green and Lexington will be respectively the bases of operation.

The protracted meeting which has been in progress at Ebenezer Presbyterian Church since November 25th, conducted by Rev. J. M. Evans, an Evangelist of Maysville, and Rev. W. J. Shelton of Tennessee, will probably continue over next Sunday. Dr. Evans, who does the preaching, presents the Gospel with fervor and power, and at this writing he has visited about 70 different homes. The meetings are well attended and much interest is being manifested. Eight persons have already been received into the Church and many others are expected. Mr. Shelton will probably be called to the pastorate of the Church. Let the good work go on.

The open season for quail in Ohio ended yesterday.
